Show me your faith without works & I will show you my Faith by what I do. - James 2:18

Our last major snow storm came on a Tuesday; it snowed & it blowed. By the time it let up late Wednesday evening we had 18 inches of fresh snow on top of the 24 we had gotten the weekend before. All through the storm we took the time to go out & shovel the driveway hoping to make it an easier task in the long run. At 10:22 a.m. on Thursday the snowplow visited our street for the 1st time & buried most of our efforts; it closed our driveways & filled our sidewalks with compacted heavy-duty snow. Along with the neighbors we worked for hours to regain that feeling of connectedness with the outside world. Although the snow was heavy we had an ally in the sun. Not long after we cleared a spot the sunshine had it dry. Without our hard work the pavement would have been covered with ice & snow for weeks. Without the sunshine there would have been nothing we could do to dry the blacktop. How life-like. Living well, getting along with others, paying the bills, & staying away from all the enemy's snares takes all we have. Without great effort we would get plowed under very quickly. But without the Sun shining on our lives it would be impossible. Do your best & trust God for the rest. - Pastor ☺
