Show me your faith without works & I will show you my Faith by what I do. - James 2:18

Again we pause to contemplate the actions of our founding fathers in declaring their independence from Great Britain. People who were by nature law-abiding & peaceful put their names to a document that identified them as traitors to the crown. They risked everything on the very slim chance of surviving their rebellion. If it were simply a matter of money they would have grumbled about their taxes like we grumble about ours. But theirs was a fight over principal, the principal of freedom. The dream was for a nation filled with God-fearing people to determine their own destiny as they looked for guidance from above. In order for such a dream to become a reality it requires a spirit of patriotism that perhaps President Kennedy described best when he said, "Ask not what your country can do for you; ask rather what you can do for your country." In this age of entitlements it would do us well to think about those who were willing to sacrifice all for the greater good. May we, as God's children, leave more than we take; willingly sacrificing for the greater good. Happy 4th of July.
